Dear Brother Davis:

I have checked with Mr. Hunter Mir, who is a personal friend of mine, and have discovered that a trip by air taxi would cost us approximately $150. I strongly feel that this is too much money to pay for one speaker and believe we ought to try some alternative. I have checked airlines from here as you have and discovered there is no possible way of getting there and getting back. I could attempt to drive by coming in on Friday and then driving back immediately after the presentation Saturday afternoon. However, this would be extremely difficult, and I would need to bring a driver to help with the trip.

I am sorry to cause so much trouble and want you to feel perfectly free to consider getting another speaker in view of these complications.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
